

Open up your Future: The Power of Studying Languages Online

Free Webinar, Wednesday 29 April 2026, 1pm-2pm

In a world shaped by global connection, studying a language offers benefits far beyond learning vocabulary. It deepens cultural understanding, broadens perspectives and sharpens the brain's ability to think flexibly — powerful assets for education, the workplace and beyond.

Whether you are currently studying a language or considering it for the future, we invite you to join us for this online webinar hosted by NEC and The Open University.

Together, we will explore the value of linguistics, highlight the benefits — and nuances — of learning a language online and share clear, practical guidance to support your next steps.

You will learn about:

- Why learning a language is valuable at any stage of life
- What a linguistic mindset looks like — and why it matters
- How learning a language online works in practice
- Course options, support and progression pathways
- Future careers and opportunities for language students

Plus, there will be plenty of time for questions

We look forward to welcoming you!
